IN DIXIE LAND.

We left the Quaker City on Tuesday, November 12th, passing through Wilmington, Delaware, and thence on down to Cape Charles, when we expected to go by steamer across the Chesapeake Bay, a distance of 36 miles. The steamer was in the dry dock, and its place was filled by a steam tug. There were a large number of passengers, and the cabin was small, so that we were very much crowded, and the Bay was rough. It proved to be anything but a pleasant sail. We were pitched and tossed about, and several passengers were seasick, and most of them were alarmed. After two hours of this sort of thing Old Point Comfort was reached, and smooth water was before us. From there to Norfolk and Portsmouth was plain sailing.

At Portsmouth we took a sleeping car through to Atlanta reaching the latter city on the 13th at 8 o'clock in the evening. Our tickets were over the Seaboard Air Line, and the train was composed of vestibuled sleepers. It was a fine train of cars, run over a well-managed road. A shorter route than the one we took is to go to Washington, and there take the Atlanta Special over the Seaboard Air Line. Any information concerning this road can be found in an advertisement on the 7th page, of this paper, or by writing to T. J. Anderson, Portsmouth, Va.

On our arrival at Atlanta some difficulty was experienced in securing rooms, but after a couple of hours' search very comfortable quarters were found at The Talmadge, at reasonable rates. Ed. Callaway & Co., are the proprietors, and any one contemplating a visit to Atlanta. should write to them for rooms.

Thursday, the 14th, was Pennsylvania Day. At the Pennsylvania Building we met numerous people from our State, among them being Justice McCollum and wife of Montrose, Judge and Mrs. Ikeler; Miss Stewart of Orangeville; W. M. Gearhart of Danville; Judge Metzgar of Williamsport; Judge Mayer of Lock Haven; Col. Geo. Sanderson of Scranton; Mr. McCoy and family of Danville, and many others. It was said that there were 5000 Pennsylvanians on the grounds that day. Speeches were made by Gov. Hastings, Lieut. Governor Lyon, Mayor King of Atlanta, Justices Williams and Greene and others. A free lunch was served in the building after the speeches, but there was such a crowd that we went elsewhere for our dinner.

Thursday afternoon and Friday were spent in sight seeing at the Exposition, and Saturday morning we visited points of interest in the city. The capitol building is a beautiful structure, and has a peculiar fact connected with it. An appropriation of $1,000,000 was made by the Georgia legislature for its construction, and on its completion there were nine dollars left, which were paid back into the treasury. We were in the Supreme Court room, Senate chamber, House of Representatives and the State Library.

Leaving Atlanta at noon on the 16th, by the Seaboard Air Line, we reached Washington, D. C., on Sunday morning at 11:30 and will remain here until Thursday. My impressions of the South, and a full description of the Atlanta Exposition must be reserved until a future issue.

We Have Some of Them.

The following from an exchange hits every community and Bloomsburg is no exception. Some men take it as an insult if a bill be sent to them. No matter how long the account may have run, or how long it may have taken to aggregate an account of a few dollars, the moment the printer sends a bill, the ire of the person owing the same explodes. How silly this is. Why if business men did not send out statements, and even in many cases demand prompt settlements, the business of this world would soon go to the bow wows. The way to avoid getting a bill is to pay what you owe in a reasonable time. Custom has made a reasonable time thirty days. If you can't pay, all, pay what you can. If you do this you will not receive any bills.

The night School at the Normal, of which mentioned has been heretofore made in the COLUMBIAN, opened last Monday night with quite a number present. Whilst the attendance was not as large as was expected, or as it should be, quite a number expect attending who were unable to be present at the opening. The manner of payment of the tuition has been changed to accommodate those who receive their wages weekly and monthly.

THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENCY.

Since Mr. Johnston has declined to be a candidate for re-election, the field is open to untried men.

The superintendency of the public schools is unquestionably one of the most important offices to be filled in the county. It is not a political office, nor should it under any circumstances be considered or treated as such. The education of the rising generation. our boys and girls, is too weighty, if not sacred, a matter to be treated in any other manner than with the utmost seriousness. Their success, in this life at least, depends upon the kind of training the schools furnish them. Whether they shall become intelligent, moral, yea, more, Christian, men and women, depends upon the character of the teaching they receive and the examples that are set them by those who are appointed to instruct them.

What the morals of the incumbent of the highest educational office of the county, or, to put in more expressive terms, of the person upon whom such great responsibilities rest, should be, cannot for a moment even be made a question by any save citizen or director.

What the officer's scholastic or educational acquirements shall be the law specifies. Suffice it to say that he should be competent to test the fitness of any applicants for the positions for which they are candidates. Where he obtained or received his acquirements, whether at a university or at a country cross-roads schoolhouse, can not be a matter of concern, provided he possesses them.

The law also broadly, but indefinitely, designates the professional qualifications, namely, "skill and experience in the art of teaching," but what skill and experience signify, every one defines for himself according to the opportunities or advantages he has had of informing himself on the subject. Accordingly, those terms may mean much or little. Skill may denote the merest routine work, "hearing lessons" and preserving mechanical order "keeping schools,—and. experience, a certain number of years of school-room work without any appreciable improvement.

A superintendent of the present day should be a student of human nature, especially child nature, should be thoroughly acquainted with the guiding principals of modern pedagogics and their applications in all the branches of the public school curriculum and to all grades of pupils. He should also be familiar with the history of educational methods. Any one lacking these qualifications could be little help to the great body of teachers. He might affect learned and important airs while inspecting schools, yet he would be nothing more than a "figure-head" instead of a real superintendent. P. L.

SUDDEN DEATH.

The citizens of this place were surprised Monday morning by receiving the intelligence that David J. Waller 3rd., son of Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Waller of Indiana Pa. was dead. News of this kind always carries a shock, and it is much greater when the person is as bright and interesting, and has before him as bright a future as the subject of this sketch. The immediate cause of his death was inflammation of the bowels, which was caused by a cold contracted on Wednesday whilst out hunting and from which he died last Saturday evening at six o'clock. Day, as he was called by his friends was one of the brightest, truest, and manliest boys we ever knew. His life among his companions was such an one as that they could safely follow his example. He was studious, obedient, and true to his religious conviction, Whilst naturally of a studios turn, and retiring disposition, he was always ready to enter into any plans that would furnish harmless amusement for his associates. He was a member of the senior class at the Indiana State Normal School and would have graduated next June. He was aged almost nineteen years. The body was brought here Monday evening and taken to the residence of his grandmother on Market Street. From which place the funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, and the interment was in the Rosemont Cemetery.

If it is any consolation to the parents, they can be assumed of that we but give expression to the sentiment of the entire community, when we extend our heart-felt sympathy in this their hour of great bereavement.

The horse and buggy which John S. Williams sold in front of the Court House on last Saturday was purchased by Samuel Bredbender of Mifflin X Roads, for $39. Horses are cheap.

ELOPEMENT IN MILTON.

The borough of Milton has been greatly excited over the elopement and marriage of two of the society leaders, and inasmuch as they are known to many of our readers we publish the particulars as they appeared in the Williamsport Sun.

On Friday last Lawrence B. Fonda, the only son of Colonel H. A. Fonda, the millionaire of Milton, and Miss Mary Helen McCleery, daughter of Dr. J. P. McCleery, one of the town's first citizens, journeyed over the Northern Central railroad to Watkins, N. Y. They were met there by a school friend of the bride-to-be, who just happened to be visiting at the home of a Presbyterian clergyman. At the latter's home the ceremony was performed before a very few witnesses. Saturday saw Mr. and Mrs. Fonda again in Milton as if nothing had happened.

They returned to their respective homes, and it is supposed informed their parents of Friday's journey and its results. It is stated that both families were considerably vexed over the clandestine marriage and were surprised that they should have thought it necessary to leave home in order to become man and wife. It is also stated that the most amicable feeling exists between the heads of the families and the newly wedded. That this latter is true may be surmised from the fact that cards announcing their marriage are now being printed by Bailey, Banks & Biddle, and will be sent out the beginning of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fonda will, it is said, occupy a suite of rooms at the Hotel Haag during the coming winter.

Patronize Home Enterprise.

There is little inducement for Bloomsburg people to go out of town to buy, or purchase goods of travelling merchants, who, if they travelled in less genteel style would be called "peddlers," when the local tradesmen have such excellent goods, in large assortment, at prices within reason.

Consult the advertising columns of the COLUMBIAN, and start on your shopping tour. All the live merchants have their advertisements in this paper.

"He is right in it." We mean Chief of Police Knorr, snd his new uniform. Have you seen it?

A New Fire Alarm.

An electrical system is needed in Bloomsburg.

Bloomsburg should have an electrical fire alarm system. All citizens should interest themselves in this matter for it is of vital importance to every resident that the fire protection should be perfect.

The volunteer fire department of this city has the reputation and record of being one of the best in the State. Every resident of Bloomsburg is justly proud of our fire laddies and the good work they have done. Yet the firemen could do much better and quicker work if an electrical alarm system was put in. As a matter of fact, what is now known as alarm, is no alarm, as it can't be heard two square away unless the wind happens to be blowing in the right direction. This matter should receive the immediate attention of the Town Council. No one will "kick" at an expenditure for this purpose.

NATIONAL REFORM ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the Pastor's Union which was held at the Y. M. C. A. parlor last Monday, services were arranged for next week which will be in the interest of the National Reform Association. Rev. J. W. Dill, National Secretary and other prominent speakers will be present. The first meeting will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting Monday night will be in the Baptist Church, and in the Lutheran Church Tuesday evening, Wednesday evening there will be two mass meetings, one in the Presbyterian and the other in the Reformed Church.

The subjects which will be discussed at these meetings will be the bible in the public schools. Reform in the divorce laws. Sabbath desecration and kindred subjects. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Washington Camp No. 19, P. O. S. of A. Light Street will present two flags to the public schools on Thanksgiving day as follows: to the Millertown school in Mt. Pleasant township at 9:30 A. M. and to the Turkey Hill school in Scott township at 2:00 P. M. Able speakers have been secured and a good time is expected. The children cannot be taught too early to love the flag, and the parents should make an effort to attend. You will never regret it.

THE WORLD OF FASHION.

FETCHING GOWN FOR THE FALL'S COLD BREEZES.

Fur and Lace—A Poem in Royal Blue—A Smart Street Frock—Persian Lamb—Popularity of Ermine—The Trousseau of a New-Born Heiress.

With the advent of cold weather, Dame Fashion is especially busy with new and fetching combinations, to glorify the season's beauties.

A stunning rig for a clear, frosty day is a gown just set out to the lady who will beautify it this season. It is a royal blue in color, and is one of those shaggy haired camel's hair cloths, showing long, silky threads all over its surface.

The skirt is as plain as can be, but is a mass of undulations, as are all the skirts of swagger gowns. The bodice is a short pointed affair, with the cloth laid as loosely and yet clinging to the figure. A yoke of rich Honiton lace is laid over royal blue velvet and edged smartly with Russian sable, an almost priceless fur; bands of sable extend across the shoulders, to a point at the bottom of the bodice. Over the full gigot sleeves flare revers of ivory white velvet, edged narrowly with Honiton. The huge stock of royal blue velvet has smart little points of sable setting out under the ears.

The hat in this case is a fetching little affair of ivory velvet, laid softly over a frame and having two spikey loops at one side. A muff of sable completes the costume.

One of the smartest street frocks of the season is in sage green, satiny looking broadcloth, with trimmings of green velvet and chinchilla. The skirt ripples smartly and fits the hips like a glove. Around the foot is a deep band of chinchilla, graduated into points at intervals, to the depth of half a yard. At the top of this band is a full ruching of sage green velvet, looking intensely green against the clear grays of the fur.

The bodice is a short, round affair of sage green velvet, made severely plain save for the rows of small velvet buttons. A jaunty bit of a cape of chinchilla flares out over the shoulders and is fastened down the front by two huge silver clasps, while around the throat is a double ruche of the velvet. A muff of chinchilla and a bent-up hat of grayish beaver, all a mass of shaded scarlet roses, completes a stunning rig.

Persian lamb is as much in favor as formerly, but is especially appropriate for morning wear. It combines beautifully with soft stuffs, such as chiffons.

A very fetching little cape to be worn

by a young girl in half-mourning has a very decided sweep, and is lined throughout with dead white satin.

Ermine is again brought to the fore, as preferable to all other furs, for flat trimmings, on account of its flat surface. An aristocratic young New York swell has among her valuable collection of furs a deep sailor collar of this almost priceless stuff, which covers half the back and the entire front of her rich velvet coat. This collarette has a smart standing collar, with wire points in front, to set out jauntily under the chin. There is a muff to match, and both articles are lined with the richest creamy-white satin.

Ermine is also used in abundance on the wraps of small children, though one seldom sees the genuine stuff thus employed. The imitations are so clever, however, it is almost impossible to detect the difference.

A new-born heiress has in her small trousseau street cloaks of every description, among them one of especial loveliness, being composed entirely of Lyons silk velvet, in the yellowest of creamy whites, the tiny triple shoulder capes all edged and lined with ermine. There is a muff to go with it, though it is doubtful if baby's hand will remain quiet long enough to be put into this small receptacle.

The Woman in Demand.

After everything is said and done it is the woman who can turn in and keep house creditably that wins the most lasting admiration from her friends, both in and out of the home circle. To be able to sing and play, to ride a wheel or sail a yacht makes a woman a very pleasant and popular acquisition to society, but when the cook takes her departure none of these accomplishments seem as thoroughly satisfying as that of mastery over culinary difficulties.

The domestic problem is one of the most vexing as well as important problems of the day. Training schools for servants are as necessary as they are loudly advocated. But the mistress needs training quite as much as the servant—a training which a season at a fashionable cooking school is inadequate to give. And it is the middle-class housekeeper—the woman who keeps only one servant, the woman whose mother in nine cases out of ten was a notable housekeeper, and did her own work—who needs systematic and scientific training far more than do the heads of more luxurious households, for among these it is no unusual thing to find women who are perfect in every department of housekeeping.

When every mother recognizes it as one of her highest duties and privileges to make thorough housekeepers of her daughters, then and only then shall we have cause to congratulate ourselves upon the "New Woman."—Philadelphia Times.

To Reduce Flesh.

In the large cities middle-aged women throng the gymnasium and physical culture schools to learn how to reduce the too abundant flesh and keep off the rheumatism which is often an accompaniment. The woman who does her own housework has most of her muscles called into exercise every day, and the danger with her is that they are over-exercised; still much relief can be received by sponging every night after hard labor with the following inexpensive lotion: Two ounces of spirits of ammonia, two ounces of spirits of camphor, one and one-half cups of sea salt, one cup of alcohol and one cup of rain water.

The woman whose face and throat are thin can remedy the thinness by frequent bathing in cool water, and before retiring rubbing in some good cream. In rubbing the wrinkles should be rubbed against, so as to rub them out, and it is as much in the rubbing as in the cream. A nice bit of soft, white flannel rubbed several times daily over the face will be beneficial, and she whose double chin detracts from her good looks can, by judiciously rubbing downward, get rid of the superfluity. Above all things, let the woman who desires to keep her youth and beauty cultivate a sweet disposition and her intellect at the same time.—Mankind.

Woman and Love.

Love is homesickness of the heart.

Most men love little women, and little women love most men.

Love is a fellow going around swapping a peck of trouble for a pint of happiness.

Living on love is all very well before marriage, but after marriage young people occasionally require cold pie.

The marriageable age in Persia is from fourteen to fifteen, and even in Persia a woman occasionally gets left.

Says a cynical Frenchman: "A woman often thinks she regrets the lover when she only regrets the love."

A story entitled "The Penniless Maiden" has just been issued. It will have very little interest for the modern youth.

It is not true that a woman cannot keep a secret. She can carry a secret to the grave, and beyond, when it involves danger to the man she loves—that is, if she really loves him.—Texas Siftings.

Types of Beauty.

It is said that when artists are seeking for models, the palm for beauty and symmetry of figure is given to the girls of Spain, while the daughters of rural Ireland are a good second. The pretty faces and graceful throats are found among English maidens. A model for a perfect arm would be sought for among Grecian ladies, while a lady of the Turkish harem would be regarded as the possessor of a daintily commendable hand. Italians are usually good in figure, and some of the most beautiful models, perfectly proportioned, are derived from the women of sunny Italy. French women, as a rule, are not in request, being too thin and vivacious for the purpose; while the face and limbs of a German frau are too commonplace for artistic work.

Potato Soup.

To one part of mashed potatoes allow two parts chipped bread, both well soaked and thoroughly stirred together. Use sufficient salt and pepper to taste, and flavor with onions fried to a light brown.

Another good recipe for potato soup: Put two good-sized potatoes in a saucepan in a pint of water, one bay leaf, celery seed, a slice of onion and a sprig of parsley. Cook until thoroughly done, then press through a very fine sieve, using the water in which they are boiled. Put a pint of milk in a double boiler. Rub together one ounce of butter and an even teaspoonful of flour; stir into the hot milk, and stir continually until it thickens; add the potatoes to this, season with salt and pepper and serve.—New York Recorder.

Making a Miniature.

Those who know only the finished miniature and have no acquaintance with the method of its production cannot conceive of the labor that it represents. Each of these tiny masterpieces—these ornaments with human identification—these concentrated expressions of pictorial art—stands for more toil, of a peculiarly exacting sort, than the largest canvas. The brushes, some of them containing scarcely half a dozen hairs, make strokes so fine that most of the painting must be done under a magnifying glass. And the touches on the frail bit of ivory must be as unerring as they are light, for the smallest mistake may destroy the characteristic translucence that constitutes the miniature's greatest charm

IMPORTANT OPINION.

Handed Down by Judge Savidge on The Return of Premiums to Saving Funds

Judge Savidge says: A borrower, not declared a defaulter is entitled to return premium.

The currert number of the District Reports contains an important opinion on the question of the right of a building and loan association to retain all of the premiums bid by a shareholder to obtain a loan. The case arose in the Court of Common Pleas of this county and was decided by Judge Savidge. of Sunbury.

Joseph Yeager, of Mahanoy City, a stockholder of the Fidelity Building and Loan Association of that place, borrowed $600 from this associaton on which he bid a premium of $120 giving it judgments for $720. Some time after making this loan he became financially embarrassed and at the instance of other creditors his real estate was sold by the Sheriff realizing $1,250.00, which was not enough to satisfy all the judgment creditors.

The money was ruled into Court and an auditor appointed to distribute the same. The association claimed that it was entitled to receive the full amount due on its judgments. Attorneys representing junior lien creditors contended that the association must treat Yeager's claim as if he was making a voluntary repayment and that under the Act of April 10, 1879, (P. L. 17) the association had no right to "retain more than one one-hundredth of the premium bid for each calendar month that has expired since the date of the meeting upon which the loan was made." The return premiums amounted to $83.01.

The auditor decided that the association had the right to retain all of the premium bid and awarded the association all of its claim, which was $611.09. To this exceptions were filed by Mr. Wadlinger for the Nuding Brewing Company, alleging that the legal claim of the association was only $528.08, and that the amount of the return premium should be awarded to his client.

The matter was argued before Judge Savidge, who decided against the Fidelity Building and Loan Association.

Judge Savidge in winding up his decision said:

"The Fidelity Building and Loan Association, of Mahanoy City. is now hereby awarded $528.08 instead of the $611.00, allowed it by the auditor, and the $83.01 deducted from the allowance is added to the amount distributed to the Nuding Brewing Company, making its distributive share, $187.20 instead of $108.22, as fixed by the Auditor."

The Wilkes-Barre water supply has proved inadequate and the water unwholesome, and the several water companies are talking of combining to get an abundant supply of good, pure water. It is announced that to provide an abundant supply of good water for Wilkes-Barre and its suburbs, a new scheme has been evolved and it now looks as though it would be a go. The proposition is that the Wilkes-Barre water companies combine to secure water from the river at a point above Campbell's Ledge. The scheme was considered at considerable length at a meeting of the representatives of the water companies, and it was announced that the Crystal Spring Water Company, the Wilkes-Barre Water Company, the Campbell's Ledge Water Company, and the West Side Spring Brook Water Company had entered into an agreement to pump from the river, as above outlined, an immense reservoir to be constructed somewhere near Campbell's Ledge at a sufficient elevation to furnish the necessary force. The cost, it is estimated, will be $150,000, which will be paid pro rata by the companies concerned. The scheme has been taken in hand by the water committees of councils. and it will probably go through. Another meeting of the representatives of the water companies will be held this week.

Make Yourself Strong.

If you would resist pneumonia, bronchitis, typhoid fever, and persistent coughs and colds. These ills attack the weak and run down system. They can find no foothold where the blood is kept pure, rich and full of vitality, the appetite good and digestion vigorous, with Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache.

Must Be Of Age.

The Pennsylvania railroad company is determined that an immediate end must be put to the possibility of suits arising from injuries sustained by employes who were under age. A few days ago nine young men under 21, who were working on the work train Altoona, were promptly discharged. It is said that this rule is to be strictly enforced throughout the entire system in the future.

KNOCKED OUT HIS EYE.

It is rare that anyone suffers the peculiar affliction that happened to William Geary, a son of Patrick Geary, of West Chester. One of his eyes was knocked completely out of the socket, but was replaced and is now performing its functions as well as of yore.

The singular accident occurred while the boy was playing on the street. A companion threw a potato at him in play and it struck him near the eye in such a way that the eyeball was knocked out upon the lids. A companion replaced it, and at the present time it is all right again. It gave him but little pain.

Tours to the Golden Gate and Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad.

That the public are quick to recognize the advantages of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's perfect personally conducted tourist system is exemplified by the annual increase in the number of participants in tours organized under that system. Aside from this, the growing desire of Americans to see the wonders of their land is also an important factor in advancing this healthy sentiment in favor of travel.

This season's tours to California will be conducted in all respects as those of preceding years, and will leave New York and Philadelphia February 12 and March 11, 1896. On the first tour a stop will be made at New Orleans for the Mardi-Gras festivities, and four weeks will be allowed in California. On the second tour four and one half weeks will be allowed in California.

In addition to the tours to the Golden Gate, a series of tours to Jacksonville has been arranged. The tours will leave New York and Philadelphia January 28, February 4, 11, 18, and 25, and March 3, 1896, and allow two weeks stay in the "Land of Flowers."

Detailed itineraries of these tours will be sent on application to Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

A GOOD INDICATION.

Medical practitioners of prominence are prescribing for the cure of diseases springing from derangements of the digestive organs, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. This professional endorsement is justified by the fact that no other preparation has been found so efficacious in that class of disorders even in the most advanced and severe cases. It has cured gravel in the kidneys, stone in the bladder and inflammation of the kidneys, where all other medicines had failed. All druggists sell it. 2t.

Election Officers Indicted.

True bills have been found against J. Schibe, and John C. Watters, judges of elections of different wards in Tamaqua, charged with neglecting to make proper returns of election as judges of election. The election was held last February to increase the debt for the purpose of erecting a new electric light plant. The defendants had neglected to make the return of the result of the election to the Clerk of the court until three or four weeks subsequent to the election. The prosecutor in the case is R S. Hirsh, the editor of the Tamaqua Recorder.

To Beautify the Complexion.

—do not take the cosmetics, paints and powders which injure the skin, but take the easiest way to gain a beautiful color and a wholesome skin. Health is the greatest beautifier. The means to beauty, comfort, and health for women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Dull eyes, sallow or wrinkled face, and those "feelings of weakness," have their rise in the derangements peculiar to women.

"Favorite Prescription" will build up, strengthen, and invigorate, every "run-down" or delicate woman by regulating and assisting all the natural functions.

To cure constipation, biliousness, indigestion, sick-headache, take Dr. Pierce's Pellets. One a dose.

A Great Offer.

The "Twice-a-Week" edition of the New York World (formerly the Weekly) has proved a phenomenal success. It is a Semi-Weekly of six pages, mailed Tuesdays and Fridays; eight columns to the page; forty-eight columns each issue. It gives the news fully half a week ahead of any weekly paper, and, at the same time, retains all the literary, agricultural, miscellany and other features which made the Weekly World so popular. Yet the price is only $1.00 a year. For sample copies address THE WORLD, N. Y.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper and the Twice-a-Week New York World all for $1.75 a year. Take advantage of this offer and get your own local paper and the Twice-a-Week World at this special rate. tf.

LATEST STYLES IN FURS.

They are as Costly, Rare and Beautiful This Season as Ever.

One visit to the furriers and all your dreams of economy vanish. It is impossible to practice economy and dress in the mode, since to be fashionably gowned means lots of expensive furs. The tiniest little tot of two or three summers feels an especial delight in its first set of furs almost as keen as that of its pretty mamma in her new sealskin.

Thibet, in soft creamy white, is usually the first fur worn by the dainty little miss, nor does it end here, for Thibet in black is especially smart for the mammas.

A very swagger jacket of sage green velvet, tight fitting and extremely Frenchy, has a sharply pointed yoke collarette of spotted net, edged with Honiton in a brownish white, the delicacy of the lace work brought out vividly by the depth of tone in the velvet. A stock collar of velvet is edged with black Thibet, which flares up about the face in the most approved style. A muff of Thibet is the extent of fur used, and still the fur is of such a fluttering quality that it seems quite sufficient.

There are furs for the young and furs for the elder women, and the styles are as distinctive as can be. Chinchilla is a decidedly youthful fur, so is ermine, which is, however, just as appropriately worn by middle-aged women, and especially lovely on elderly ladies who possess a halo of snow-white hair. Chinchilla bids fair to be the fur par excellence of the winter of '95. Its revival means at least a season's reign, and probably two, since it is so becoming a fur.

A dashing suit in slate-colored corduroy is combined beautifully with this silvery looking stuff to the advantage of both. The skirt is hung in the most graceful of swirls, and all around the foot is a broad band of chinchilla, the fluffy softness fluttering with every step. The bodice is a tiny jacket, really having a ripple back, showing its facings of pearly satin. It is a double breasted affair, fastened with a row of tiny silver buttons. Over the shoulder is a deep bertha of the fur lined with satin, setting up smartly over the sleeves, which are in the leg-o'-mutton style. A soft fluff of chinchilla encircles the throat and adds the finishing touch to the gown. A large muff is worn with it.

A hat with a flaring brim, faced with vermillion red velvet, and having loops of vermillion red velvet in the front, adds just the required touch of color.

Walking Gloves.

Following out the masculine style of dressing street gloves are heavy and more for use than show. Long gloves are not considered good form, and old "party gloves," no matter how carefully cleaned, spoil the entire effect of a new tailor-made costume.

The dogskin and heavy kid gloves are difficult to get with the fingers long or short enough, and some women now buy boys' gloves, to secure the right shape and size. The dark tan and light browns are the best shades, and two buttons are more fashionable than three. Even one button is permissible and vastly more comfortable, when sleeves are worn close fitting at the wrists and long over the hands, although the wrist that shows occasionally is not to an unaccustomed eye a thing of beauty. But these gloves are better than one-button gloves used to be, for they are longer.

HEROIC WOMEN.

Their Struggle Against a Common and Merciless Enemy.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Woman's heroism is not evinced by fearlessness or enterprise in time of danger, but her courage and fortitude are unquestionable in time of suffering.

Think of the woman who smiles and tries to make those around her cheerful, while she is racked with the excruciating tortures of womb trouble.

Think of one who, day by day, begs her physician to help her, while the torture of tortures could not add to her misery.

Does she yield? No! She endures her agonies, and meets her friends with cheerfulness.

This is woman's heroism, and few men realize how prevalent they are. Physicians rarely render relief in such cases.

After twenty years of success, with ever-increasing popularity, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is, to-day, woman's only sure and safe refuge from inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, ovarian trouble, leucorrhœa, painful and suppressed menstruations, kidney trouble, nervous prostration, and all manner of distressing and life-sapping female diseases.

"O my sisters, believe what is told you of this wonderful medicine! Before I took it I had falling of the womb and leucorrhœa. My womb came down so badly I could not walk across the floor; the pain was excruciating; now all is so changed, and I am so happy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved me from a life of misery. Don't, don't suffer, I say, when a cure is so easily obtained." — MRS. WILLIAM HOWE, 163 Antoin Street, Detroit, Mich.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

What Has Occured There Since Our Former Report.

POOR DIRECTORS CONTEST.

The Commissioner appointed by the Court in the matter of the election contest for Poor Directors of Conyngham and Centralia Poor District, between Cain and Lenihan, has made his return to Court. He finds that the charges made by Lenihan, that the election was illegal, is true, and sustains the charges. The matter is now in the hands of the Court. In the matter of the inspection arising out of the same case, restraining B. J. Doyle, one of the Directors, from recognizing Cain as a Poor Director, and C. G. Murphy as Treasurer, and Brennan as Steward, from performing the duties of their offices, is in the Supreme Court.

To Keep Out Flowers.

Flowers with woody stems, such as roses, chrysanthemums, etc., may be kept in water a long time by notching the stalk from the bottom nearly to the bloom at intervals of about three-fourths of an inch. They are thus enabled to suck up more water than they can from the cut stalk alone. At this season when flowers are getting scarce it is desirable to keep them as long as possible.

Special Meeting of Wyoming Classis of the Reformed Church in the United States.

Wyoming Classis of the Reformed Church in the U. S. meet in special session in Shiloh Reformed Church, Danville on Monday, November 18th. In the absence of the President and Vice President Rev. C. H. Brandt of Bloomsburg was chosen President pro tem.

The following business was then transacted: Rev. W. H. Loose was received from Zion's Classis Synod of the Potomac. A call to him from the Mausdale Charge was confirmed and the following committee was appointed for his installation: Revs. D. W. Ebbert, C. B. Alspach, and C. H. Brandt.

A report from the supply committee for the Emanuel's Charge was read and adopted. In accordance with this report, Rev. E. H. Dieffenbacher was appointed the supply for the Strawberry Ridge congregation, and Rev. W. H. Loose for the Heller congregation.

A report was also read from a committee relative to Grace Reformed church, Hazleton, and the Reformed Church at Stockton. The report was adopted and the committee continued. There being no further business Classis adjourned.

INSTALLATION SERVICES.

On Monday evening November 18th Rev. W. H. Loose was installed as pastor of the Mausdale charge of the Reformed church. This charge consists of two congregations, the one is at Mausdale and the other at Ridgeville. The installation services were held at Mausdale and were conducted by Rev. C. H. Brandt of Bloomsburg, and Rev. C. B. Alspach of Danville. Rev. Brandt conducted the opening exercises, and delivered the charge to the people, and Rev. Alspach delivered the charge to the pastor, and conducted the installation services proper. Rev. Loose begins his work under very favorable circumstances, and good results, no doubt, will follow his ministry.

Don't Vote in Roaring Creek.

Voters in the election districts of Roaring Creek, Columbia county, had no time last week to exercise their sovereign privilege. The poll books and ballots were returned the day after election with the explanation that the voters were to busy shocking corn to attend the election, and no one could be prevailed upon to serve as judge or clerk.

The above article appeared in the Daily Local of Ashland, last Friday. We don't know where they obtained their information upon which the article was based, but the person who furnished it, should be made to feel the effects of the law in regard to furnishing false statements to newspapers. It is absolutely false in every particular. Newspaper proprietors and editors should satisfy themselves beyond any doubt as to the truth of such statements before giving them publicity. It may however originated in the fertile mind of the editor.

Washington Camp, No. 540, P. O. S. of A., of Catawissa, has secured Miss S. Clara Leighner, of Slippery Rock, Pa., elocutionist and lecturer, to give an entertainment in the Opera House on the evening of Friday, Nov. 29th. The lady comes with the highest recommendations. Admission to all parts of the hall, 25 cents.

Massachusetts Women Won't Vote.

The vote in Massachusetts, last Tuesday, on the question of woman suffrage, was very significant; and shows the women of that State to take very little interest in conferring the right of suffrage on their own sex. The figures show that in 19 cities, 10,896 registered, but only one-third of them went to the polls and voted in favor of municipal suffrage. In two cities scarcely one ninth voted, and in one, Fall River, only 300 voted of 2,127 registered. The test of woman suffrage in Massachusetts was the severest blow the cause has ever received. Nowhere was it more ably championed with so little result. —Doylestown Democrat.

An Indemnity from many Mills.

Under a recent act of the Supreme Court, the modern roller process, used in many flouring mills in the country, has been declared an infringement on a patent issued to one, Samuel M. Brua, in 1878. Later he assigned it to H. B. and L. B. Keiper, of Lancaster, who brought suit to recover damages for the infringement.

The Court has ruled that every mill, using the process, must pay an indemnity of $100. We understand that there are several mills in Columbia County that will come under the ban.

There is talk that all owners, who are not in any of the miller's associations in the State, will organize to fight the levy. Several of the Columbia County mills belong to associations that have already made settlements.

For Men of Society.

What is the use of dressing up to pay a call when that cough makes you a burden to yourself and a nuisance to your friends? Take something for it. There is nothing as good as a twenty-five cent bottle of Ely's Pineola Balsam, which is soothing to the throat and lungs. It will relieve the cough at once and in a few days you will almost forget that you had a cough.

Do You Want Holiday Trade?

An advertisement judiciously placed is now the proper thing to catch the holiday trade. The fact that the COLUMBIAN is constantly growing in popularity and its circulation steadily increasing readily suggests it as the best advertising medium to which the local business men have access.

Glance Over These Perfectly Assorted Stocks

We have prepared with just those stylish and worthy goods that you are always accustomed to get here. We don't know of a want in the general line of dry goods, queensware, boots, shoes, or groceries that would not be filled here, and if it is something out of the ordinary we will be glad to get it. Try us for that new dress, or cloak, or a pair of blankets.

News from our Cloak Room.

A hundred or more garments are here for your inspection. Perfectly and stylishly made, just the correct thing, and prices in reach of all. There are some reasons why we can save you money in cloaks. First, we bought them at rock bottom prices. Second, the styles and fabrics are the latest; third, there has been a general clipping from the price. Are you curious enough to come?

HOSIERY HINTS.

In women's wool hose we have a dozen qualities that are nothing but pure wool. In children's hose we have a lare quantity in all wool, part wool, and cotton. Some extra strong stockings for boys. In men's hose we have a dozen grades in cotton, wool, also part wool. We have everything that is good, that you are likely to want. We exercised particular care to get good qualities, as stockings can be good although costing but 25c. It is worth while coming here.

BUSINESS IS LIVELY WITH THE BLANKETS.

Scarce a day in the week passes but some one is buying these good blankets. A price that covers every purse, and not an unworthy one in the lot. All wool, part wool, and cotton, although the last two are in the minorty. If we tell you that a certain blanket is all wool, you can rely on it being so. It isn't always so everywhere.

All cotton blankets, 60c.
Silver greys, $1.25.
Wool blankets, 6 lbs., $2.00.
One hundred per cent. wool, 11–4, $3.50.
Sanitary greys, 11–4, $4.00.
California blankets, 11–4, $6.00.
"Omega" finest made, 12–4, $9.50.

Couldn't replace these at this figure, so better buy now.

READY MADE WRAPPERS.

Both print and flannel, and just as stylishly and honestly made as though you did the work. Figure the cost of of material, findings and sewings, and you can see why these prices are money savers. Prints, half lined, at $1.00. Flannel, half lined, at $1.75, and many others at different prices.

CHAMBER SUITS.

Never more plentiful, more neatly decorated, or less costly than now. Anywhere from $2.50 up to $10.00. These latter are china and can't be duplicated at twice the money. Rare bargains. Can't we sell you one?

GROCERIES.

These necessities of life ought to interest you. Some thing new. Eclipse raisins. Larger raisins seeded. Not expensive either. Aunt Maria's Pancake flour. Pancakes in the morning in a minute. Try one package and you will always use it. Fruit cake—like it? Good as home made and less expensive, 25c. lb. Home made apple and peach butter. Ask to taste it when here. Fleishman's yeast, finest made.

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15th, 1895.

Does President Cleveland desire to be renominated? That is about the first question asked by every democrat who has arrived in Washington since it was published that Vice President Stevenson had said that Mr. Cleveland would be nominated again if he wished to be. It is probably because Mr. Stevenson has been regarded by many democrats as a probable candidate for the nomination himself, that his opinion has attracted such wide attention. Mr. Stevenson enjoys the reputation of being an unusually shrewd observer of events in the political world, and, although he has never had an open rupture with the administration, it is known that he has differed with it in a number of notable instances. It is because democrats know these things that they regard his words as significant, and are asking whether Mr. Cleveland wants to run again. It can be stated upon the highest authority that he does not; but the number of democrats who believe that he will accept, if the convention nominates him, is much larger to-day than it was before the recent elections.

Democratic Senators are doing very little talking for publication concerning which party will control the Senate at the session of Congress, now only a little more than two weeks off. They have possession of the control of the committees and they propose to retain it until relieved of that duty by a majority of the Senate.

Men who profess to be able to name the next republican Presidential ticket, can be found on every street corner, but this week a man turned up in Washington who said he was willing to bet a little money —he did not say how much—that the ticket would be Harrison of Indiana, and Bradly of Kentucky. The name of this reckless prophet is Anson B. Price and he says his home address is Blooming, Illinois. If democrats have any influence with the republican convention, Mr. Price will be right as to Harrison.

Nobody would be surprised if the story, placing Secretary Carlisle in the vacant seat in the Supreme Court, turns out to be true. President Cleveland thought enough of Secretary Carlisle as long ago as during his first administration to make him a justice—the Chief Justice, in fact—of the Supreme Court, and would have done so had not a gossiping tongue repeated where he would be sure to hear of it, a bit of scandal connected with a night's episode in the private life of Mr. Carlisle. Since that the President's admiration has been increased for Secretary Carlisle in numerous ways, not the least of which was his unqualified endorsement of the President's financial position, and it would not be strange if he carried out the intention he first had, provided, of course, that Secretary Carlisle desires it.

Col. Henry Clay Tompkins, Chairman of the Alabama State Democratic Committee, who is now in Washington, certainly knows the condition of the party in his state. He says: "There is no danger of a split in the party in our State over the silver issue or any other issue. Our people may differ on economic subjects, but when brought face to face with a grave problem, involving a surrender of our government to an inferior element; then all the factions will unite, and bury their financial differences. When we meet in State convention everything will be settled. The National Convention will settle the silver question, and whatever the platform is all true democrats will stand thereon."

It would be intersting to know whether any politics was talked when President Cleveland went to New York to attend the marriage of ex-Secretary Whitney's daughter. It was the first time the President and his ex-Secretary of the Navy had met for several years, and there was much they might have said to each other that would have interested democrats everywhere. No man in this country is a better judge of the trend of political sentiment than William C. Whitney, and no man is better qualified to be a safe adviser of the administration.

Secretary Olney has received a letter from Rev. H. O. Dwight, whose duty it is to watch over the American missionaries in Turkish territory, highly commending the promptness and energy which have been displayed by Mr. Terrel, U. S. Minister to Turkey, during the Armenian troubles. Dr. Dwight says he speaks from personal knowledge and adds to the force of what he writes by informing the Secretary that Mr. Terrell has no knowledge of his having written. This ought to be a sufficient refutation of the charges of indifference and carelessness which have been made against Mr. Terrell by his enemies in this country.

All the members of the Cabinet, except Secretary Carlisle, have completed their annual reports, and the President is daily working on his annual message to Congress. Secretary Carlisle's report, like the President's message, will not be made public until after it goes to Congress. The others will be given out in a few days.

BIG DAY AT THE EXPOSITION.

A Day Given Up to Pennsylvania.

Last Thursday, November 14th, was Pennsylvania Day at the exposition and the people of the Keystone State broke the record of attendance, not less than 5,000 more people being on the grounds than on any other day the exposition has yet seen.

Governor Hastings and staff, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the Manufacturesrs' club of Philadelphia, and the Pittsburg Press cadets came in on special trains early in the morning. There were two hundred in the Manufacturers' club party. During the afternoon, the Governor and his staff were escorted to the exposition by the Governor's guards of Atlanta. Speeches were delivered at Pennsylvania's handsome building. Judge Green, of the supreme court, presided.

Governor Hastings responded to the address of Governor Atkinson. His address made a fine impression on the Southerners and he was loudly and frequently applauded.

Governor Hastings was followed by Mayor King, of Atlanta; Lieutenant Governor Lyon, of Pennsylvania; H. H. Cabannis, of Atlanta, and Judge Williams, of Pennsylvania's supreme bench. The Mexican band gave selections between the speeches.

After the speaking, the Pennsylvanians were given a luncheon at the Piedmont club. Governor Atkinson gave a reception in the evening at the executive mansion to Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania; Governor Greenhalge, of Masschusetts, and Governor Lippit, of Rhode Island.

There is no account in the despatch of the representation from Bloomsburg.

A Teacher's Jurisdiction.

The jurisdiction and authority of the teacher over the pupil is neither limited by the school house walls nor the time the school is actually in session. As a general rule in all matters connected with the schools and the matters and morals of the scholars the teacher's jurisdiction conjointly with the parents commences when the pupils leave the parental roof and continues until their return from school. The teacher, however, is not responsible for the misconduct of pupils on the way to and from school, though he has a right to punish for such misconduct, when brought to his knowledge. This is the Pennsylvania decision on the subject.

SHIPPING A VAST WHEEL.

Will Take Months to Carry It From Philadelphia to Illinois.

What is said to be the biggest single piece of machinery ever shipped across the country is now on the way from Philadelphia to Joliet, Ill. It is an immense fly wheel weighing 180,000 pounds, and was made by the Southwark Foundry & Machine Company, of Philadelphia.

It is intended for the Joliet Steel Company. The gigantic wheel is 28 feet in diameter, and the face is four feet broad. It will require a shaft 30 inches in diameter to operate it.

The great wheel is being shipped over the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad. Owing to the enormous weight it was found necessary to make use of two specially constructed cars belonging to the Baldwin Locomotive Works. The wheel was in halves, a half to a car, as it could not be transported as a whole.

Some idea of the immensity of this piece of machinery may be obtained by the fact that it required over two weeks to bring it from Philadelphia to Williamsport. It was shipped on the 25th of October and reached there on the 10th of November. The special cars were stopped several times between there and Philadelphia. Ten miles an hour is the limit of speed, and even with this slow traveling the journal boxes were constantly heating, causing no end of trouble.

At its present rate of traveling it will require several months to get it to Joliet.

A Pure Baking Powder.

A baking powder that can be depended upon to be free from lime and alum is a desideratum in these days of adulterated food. So far as can be judged from the official reports, the "Royal" seems to be the only one yet found by chemical analysis to be entirely without one or the other of these substances, and absolutely pure. This, it is shown, results from the exclusive use by its manufacturers of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally removes the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal," the manufacturers of which control the patents under which it is refined.

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. Government, who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders and whose intimate knowledge of the ingredients of all those sold in this market enables him to speak authoritatively, says of the purity, wholesomeness and superior quality of the "Royal:"

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates or other injurious substance."

Prof. Love's tests, and the recent official tests by both the United States and Canadian Governments, show the Royal Baking Powder to be superior to all others in strength and leavening power. It is not only the most economical in use, but makes the purest, finest flavored and most wholesome food.

A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

The controversy over the yacht race is becoming about as monotonous as the talk of the big pugilists. Lord Dunravens insinuations that he was buncoed, has excited the Iselins and the Vanderbilts and there's no telling now where it will end. International contests may cease entire as a result. Lord Dunraven and Lord Sackville will manage no more on this side of the pond is certain.

A Minister's Experience With Heart Disease.

Rev. L. W. Showers, Elderton, Pa.: "For many years my greatest enemy has been organic heart disease. From uneasiness about the heart, with palpitation, it had developed into thumping, fluttering, and choking sensations. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave instant relief. A few bottles have rid me of almost every symptom of heart disease. It is a wonder-worker." Sold by Wm. S. Rishton. 6 15 ry.

A GIRL'S DANGER.

Mothers are Altogether too Delicate About Advising Their Daughters.

Plain, Sensible Talks to Them Oftentimes Saves Years of Suffering; and it is Entirely a False Modesty on the Mother's Part that Keeps Her from Her Known Duty.

From the Agitator, Wellsboro, Pa.

In Elkland, Pennsylvania, a small town located on the Cowanesque River Railroad, there lived for some years, prior to 1880, Mr. Charles H. Heath, whose profession was that of a blacksmith. He had chosen for his life companion Miss Genie Boyd and here settled with his little family to earn a living by the side of his already well-beaten anvil. On January 8th, in the year 1882, there was born unto Mr. and Mrs. Heath a beautiful baby girl, with health which promised to add to the home one more joy. For this daughter the parents chose the name of Clara B., and, indeed, she was a bright star in that little circle.

A few years later, Mr. Heath seeing a better opportunity for earning his livelihood, removed his family to Harrison Valley, a town located on the same branch of railroad near its terminus. Here for a while everything was bright and the future promised to be one of comfort to them, but suddenly it became fully apparent to the father and mother that the radiant face of their little daughter was beginning to fade. This caused them much anxiety, and a physician was consulted, but little, if anything, was done to restore the vanishing beauty to their little one. The father toiled on faithfully to provide for the dependents, but the sunlight seemed to be fast fading from their home.

In March, 1892, thinking a change in location might add vigor to Clara, they took up their abode in a beautiful little town situated between the mountains, known as Little Marsh, Pa., and where nature itself seemed to be a physician superior to all mankind. Here, for a time, the change of air seemed to revive their daughter Clara, but soon other weaknesses established themselves in her body, which promised to take her from their midst.

Physicians were summoned, but she continued to grow worse and it was very evident that only a few short days remained for her on earth. The mother was distracted upon realizing the situation of her loving daughter, and it was while relating her condition to a neighbor, Mrs. Southworth, in January, 1895, that she learned of the wonderful results obtained by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for female weaknesses.

Everything else having failed to add one glimmer of light to the life so fast fading away, a fifty-cent box of Pink Pills was procured from the druggist, hoping that there might be something in this new remedy. Already Clara's complexion had grown to be of that faded color so well-known to all similarly affected. Time rolled on and she was stricken down more closely with nervous prostration and again all hope seemed to vanish. Still she continued the treatment of Dr. Williams, and when the first box was gone there seemed to be a change for the better. Her nerves had grown stronger and other weaknesses seemed to mend. "Where there is life there is hope," and another box was purchased and taken as prescribed. Clara continued to grow stronger each day and there seemed to be new life in the little home again. Father and mother were both elated to see the improvement and once more have their daughter join their family circle.

Now Miss Clara speaks for herself: "I have continued to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills up to the present time and it has only cost the small amount of $4.00 to place me where I am to-day. My health is better than ever before; my complexion was never so rosy and I am never troubled with nervous spells as before using this remedy. I attribute my present condition to the healing powers of Pink Pills for Pale People, and I am glad to recommend them to any suffering as I was. My appetite, which before their use had nearly failed me, is now as good as one need wish for, and I am again able to enjoy the pleasures of life so long denied me."

Miss Heath is still using the Pink Pills and declares her intention so to do should she require medicine of any kind. She also relates instances of her friends who are having as good results as hers from their use.

MRS. CAREY'S ENTHUSIASM AT SIXTY.

Her Daughter Marvelously Cured, then Her Own Life Saved.

From the Era, Bradford, Pa.

Mrs. Hannah Carey, an estimable lady who resides at No. 56 High Street, Bradford, Pa., is enthusiastic in her praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Carey is sixty years of age, but still possesses much of the youthful appearance of her younger days. She had never known a day's illness until a year ago, when she showed signs of general breaking down of the system. She grew emaciated, lost her appetite and it was only by a great effort that she kept on her feet.

Several different kinds of medicine were tried but her condition steadily grew worse. "I had almost given up hopes of bettering my condition," said Mrs. Carey to a newspaper man, "when I concluded to give Pink Pills a trial. Some time before, my daughter, Mrs. P. Raher, who then resided at Punxsutawney, Pa., had been marvelously cured of heart trouble by these wonderful pills and I concluded to see what virtue they possessed for the ailments of people of my age. Before I had taken the contents of one box, I noticed a change in my condition. I seemed to regain my lost strength, my appetite returned, the feeling of oppressiveness which had tortured me passed away and life took on new beauties. I took four boxes of the pills and when I had finished, my health was as good as it was before the illness. I am satisfied that Pink Pills saved me untold suffering and probably saved my life. For this reason I am always willing to recommend them to all who suffer as I did."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not looked upon as a patent medicine, but rather as a prescription. An analysis of their properties shows that they contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration, all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. They are for sale by all druggists, or may be had by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., for 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

GRACE FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER.

How Exercise for the Body May be Combined With Daily Duty.

Not a very felicitous title, some may think; but by housekeeper I do not mean the typical English dignitary we frequently see upon the stage, nor the more common character who presides over the welfare of many widowers' households. I use it as my physician did when filling out my application for a life insurance policy. He said: "I call you housekeeper in answer to this question asking your occupation, because in the small place left blank for an answer I could not name all the professions in which you are proficient, for by turn you are teacher, nurse, seamstress and cook." So please understand housekeeper, as he did, to mean a wife and mother who has all she can do and share our laugh when we read the next question: "Do you lead a sedentary life?"

A practical woman, when asked to interest herself in physical culture, is very apt to feel that if grace is to be gained by any additional burden upon her strength it is folly for her to think of the matter. But her mind may be influenced by the following verbatim reports of a few bona fide conversations heard in one classroom, patronized solely by the class which she represents.

"Every time I open my oven door I make a low courtesy, and I feel that I have improved so much in my manner of doing it that I have quite an assured sense of grace and dignity when I courtesy in the presence of others. I like to feel that I am not growing stiff and awkward."

"I close my door after me with a backward step and pleasant bow. It is surprising what a good effect it has had upon my temper. I used to be annoyed at people for leaving them open at improper times, while now I often find myself thinking here is another opportunity to relax my tired muscles."

"I do all my stair climbing with an erect carriage, so call my chamber work 'physical culture.'"

Said another, who sews part of every day: "I expand my chest with a West Point exercise before I sit down in my sewing chair. I work as long as I can sit properly, then rise for a few minutes to do something which calls into play the muscles I have not been using. If it would not scandalize my neighbors, I would go out and run around the house, but I compromise with my inclinations by always doing all the housework out of doors I can in pleasant weather. My front porch is then my favorite sewing room and numberless kitchen duties are performed in my pleasant back yard. Nothing disgusts me more with many women than to see them make slavery of their daily work, to the extent of shutting themselves in dark and unventilated rooms."

"I," said a rather delicate woman, "have learned how to rest. I find the five minutes I now take in a trying part of the day, lying flat on my back, with relaxed muscles and closed eyes, does me more good than fifteen minutes would sitting in the most comfortable chair my house affords. If I can spare fifteen minutes, though, I now divide it in halves—the first half for the recumbent position, then I push a large pillow behind my back, so that I can read without injuring my eyes and at the same time give the lower half of my body the rest it seems to require. I resume my work with a refreshed mind, which I consider an excellent preventive of a weary body."

Another had found how uselessly she had tired herself in carrying her baby or parcels or lifting heavy articles, by exerting too much will power or by directing it through improper channels. Ladies sometimes hold their prayer books with such rigid muscles that one could but imagine the beautiful volumes must weigh as much as a Webster's International.

This unnecessary waste of strength by people who so frequently complain that they have not enough to do half they wish, can be remedied by such a course of physical culture as will make them understand how to use their bodies.

A lesson in point may be secured by observing a colt learning to draw a load—how it tires itself to exhaustion while the horse by its side, doing seven-eighths of the work, is cool and patient! There is just that difference between a woman who does not know how to use her vital force properly and one who does.

All bending exercises from the waist line can be most advantageously practiced as one is doing housework, and if one attempts to do this she will be greatly benefited by the dress it will compel her to wear. Indeed, housekeepers may be congratulated on the opportunities they possess for physical self-improvement, compared with those whose employment encompasses them with witnesses. — Mary M. Hale, in Good Housekeeping.

A Help for the Kitchen Maid.

We have made the discovery lately, which it seems now we ought to have made sooner, that the top of the average kitchen stove is too little elevated above the floor, and that there is in consequence a good deal of backache and other discomfort inflicted upon the cook because so much of her work has to be done in a stooping posture. Rather we should say, perhaps, that we have discovered a remedy for the trouble which we have borne for many years, and which we hasten to make known to others in the hope of lessening their troubles. Our remedy is simply lifting the stove upon a platform, which will raise it to such a height that will bring the cooking utensils, when on the stove, within easy reach to one standing in an erect or nearly erect posture. In our case this required a platform about nine inches in depth, and, to save the trouble and expense of procuring a carpenter to build it, we secured an empty packing box of the requisite size from the grocer, at a cost of only ten cents. Brushed over with some staining material corresponding with the color of the floor, our platform looked neat and as though an established part of the room. The only additional expense involved was that of adjusting the stovepipe to the new conditions. The top of the stove is now as high as the kitchen table, or a little higher, and the cook and every one who has occasion to use the stove are delighted with the change and the greatly lightened labor.—Emily H. Miller.

Death and to-morrow are never here—they are either not come or gone.

Scott's Emulsion makes cod-liver oil taking next thing to a pleasure. You hardly taste it. The stomach knows nothing about it—it does not trouble you there. You feel it first in the strength that it brings: it shows in the color of the cheek, the rounding of the angles, the smoothing of the wrinkles.

It is cod-liver oil digested for you, slipping as easily into the blood and losing itself there as rain-drops lose themselves in the ocean.

What a satisfactory thing this is—to hide the odious taste of cod-liver oil, evade the tax on the stomach, take health by surprise.

There is no secret of what it is made of—the fish-fat taste is lost, but nothing is lost but the taste.

Perhaps your druggist has a substitute for Scott's Emulsion. Isn't the standard all others try to equal the best for you to buy?

COTTON STATES AND INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, ATLANTA, GA.,

VIA THE

SEABOARD AIR LINE.

VESTIBULED LIMITED TRAINS

Upon Which no Extra Fare is Charged.

Leave Washington, D. C., daily, at 8:40 P. M., upon arrival of the "Congressional Limited" from New York, and reach Atlanta at 4:09 P. M. the next day.

A second train, with through sleeping cars from New York, leaves Washington at 4:30 A. M., arriving at Atlanta 5:20 A. M. the next day.

Both trains leave from the Pennsylvania railroad station and land passengers in the Union Depot at Atlanta—as near the Exposition grounds as through passengers via any line are landed.

At Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va., the Seaboard Air Line has other connections equally as important as those at Washington, namely: From New York and Philadelphia, the Cape Charles Route; from Baltimore, the Bay Line steamers; from Washington, the Norfolk and Washington steamers; from New York, the Old Dominion steamships and from Boston and Providence, the Merchants' and Miners' steamships. Close connection is made at the steamer sides with through trains and Pullman Drawing-Room, Buffet Sleeping Cars operated through from Portsmouth to Atlanta without change. Each of these routes takes the passenger via Old Point Comfort and through Hampton Roads.

EQUIPMENT.

These trains are composed of the handsomest Pullman Drawing Room, Buffet Sleeping Cars and Day Coaches. The 8:40 P. M. train ("The Atlanta Special") is vestibuled from end to end and is operated solid from Washington to Atlanta without change.

POINTS OF INTEREST ALONG THE LINE.

The route from Washington is through Fredericksburg, Richmond and Petersburg, Virginia, Weldon, Raleigh and Southern Pines, North Carolina, Chester, Clinton, and Abbeville, South Carolina, and Elberton and Athens to Atlanta, Georgia.

RATES.

Excursion tickets will be sold to Atlanta and return, via the Seaboard Air Line, as follows:

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, September 17th to December 24th, inclusive, at $14.00 from Washington and $12.60 from Portsmouth and Norfolk, limited to ten days from date of sale.

Daily, September 16th to December 15th, inclusive, at $19.25 from Washington and $17.35 from Portsmouth and Norfolk, limited to twenty days from date of sale; and at $26.25 from Washington and $23.65 from Portsmouth and Norfolk, good until January 7, 1896.

THE EXPOSITION

surpasses in some respects, any Exposition yet held in America. Here you find, side by side, exhibits from Florida and Alaska, California and Maine, the United States of America and the United States of Brazil, Mexico and Canada, and so on until nearly every civilized nation on the globe is represented. On the terraces are found, among many other attractions, Arab, Chinese and Mexican villages, showing just how those peoples have their "daily walk and conversation."

Ask for tickets via "THE SEABOARD AIR LINE."

Pullman Sleeping Car reservations will be made and further information furnished upon application to any Agent of the Seaboard Air Line, or to the undersigned.

Against the Dubsites.

An Opinion Filed in the Manheim Evangelical Church Dispute.

Judge Livington delivered an opinion in the dispute between the Bowman-Esher and Dubs' faction of the Evangelical Church over the possession of the Bishop Seybert Church, in Manheim. A preliminary injunction was granted to the Bowman-Esher people in August restraining the Dubsites from worshiping in the church. A motion to dissolve was argued at the September term, when Judge Livingston made an order permitting both factions to use the church on Sunday at different hours.

Judge Livingston made a decree dismissing the motions. Judge Brubaker handed down a dissenting opinion, taking the ground that it was too severe on the Dubs people to shut them out of a place where they had worshiped for years. Judge Livingston filed an additional statement saying that the Dubs people had refused to obey his order and sought another place of worship. The equities of the case will now be tried at the next term of court.

This is one of the most noted cases in dispute between the two factions in the county.

Indian Pottery.

While out hunting on last week, Henry Miller, employed at H. T. Young's stone quarry in Beaver township, ran a rabbit into a hole, and in removing the stones pulled out some fine specimens of Indian pottery. Unfortunately, he did not at first notice them particularly, and threw them upon a pile of rocks breaking them to pieces. He afterwards picked up some of the pieces and took them back to the quarry. Mr. Young, seeing that they were something unusual, sent him back for the rest, but was obliged to return here before Mr. Miller returned. The pieces shown us by Mr. Young are very fine specimens, and from their appearance had evidently been used in melting ore of some kind. In support of this theory, W. G. Yetter, ex Superintendent of the P. & R. RR., says that a number of years ago while putting in a siding at that point the workmen discovered a boulder of very pure lead ore. Mr. Young will make a thorough investigation of the locality to see whether other specimens may not be found.—Catawissa News Item.

Belated Storm Signals.

The sermon on "Breakers Ahead" that was to have been preached in the Lutheran Church last Sunday evening was postponed until next Sunday morning on account of the Y. W. C. A. convention. Rev. Heilman called to his assistance, both morning and evening, the workers of this earnest organization. Miss Price of Chicago, the General Secretary of the International Committee spoke in the morning and delighted the great congregation that listened to her. She is one of the most beautiful and forceful speakers ever stood before a congregation. The church was crowded to hear her.

In the evening Miss Hayes of Pittsburg, delighted the people with a talk on the aims of the Association. Our town has been honored in the entertainment of these zealous christian women.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Every Christian man and woman should hear the illustrated lecture by Mr. H. L. Hastings of Boston which will be given in the Lutheran Church Thursday night Nov. 28, 1895 at 7:45. It is under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association and tickets can be procured at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, or from any member of the various Young People's societies. The lecturer needs no introduction to our people as many heard, and were delighted with his lectures last winter. Admission 25c.

Republican journals are again issuing certificates of the "death" of the Democratic party. They are always mistaking Democratic catalepsy for death.

Old Rip Van Winkle went up into the Catskill mountains to take a little nap of twenty years or so, and when he wakened, he found that the "cruel war was over," the monthly magazines had "fought it over" the second time and "blown up" all the officers that had participated in it. This much is history, and it is also an historical fact that, during the same length of time, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had become the most celebrated, as it is the most effective, Liver, Blood and Lung Remedy of the age. In purifying the blood and in all manner of pimples, blotches, eruptions, and other skin and scalp diseases, scrofulous sores and swellings, and kindred ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" manifests the most positive curative properties.

Every disorder that can be reached through the blood, yields to its purifying qualities. Besides, it builds up wholesome flesh and strength; not merely fat like filthy Cod liver oil and its nasty "emulsions" but solid flesh.

A scrofulous condition of the blood invites catarrh, bronchitis, and consumption. We're all exposed to the germs of consumption, grip and malaria—yet only the weak ones suffer. When you're weak, tired out, and debilitated, or when pimples and blotches appear—heed the warning in time. The "Golden Medical Discovery" sets all the organs into healthy action—especially the liver, and that's the point of entrance for these germs. Then if the blood be pure, they'll be thrown off. There's no risk.

CAUTION.—Accept no substitute for the "Golden Medical Discovery" that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

INTERESTING CONVENTION.

The Y. W. C. A. in Session From Friday until Saturday Evening.—Services in the Different Churches on Sunday.—A Large Attendance and Great Interest Manifested.

The Y. W. C. A. began its existence in a little place called Normal, Illinois, in 1872. From that small beginning among some college girls it has grown to be a National, International and World's organization. There are now in this country alone 280 college organizations and 61 city, a few of which are in Canada.

This State was organized in 1888, this being the eighth annual convention, and has organizations in all the principal cities. Pittsburg has a membership of 1364, Scranton 457 in two organizations, Harrisburg 398, Wilkes-Barre 300, Lancaster 309, York 296, Williamsport 115, S. Pittsburg 188, &c.

It is the aim of the Association to organize wherever the community desires it. Where they are properly equipped they not only provide a place of meeting, comfortable parlors, but rooms and board and noon lunches, and every comfort a young woman can have in her own home.

The convention met in the Lutheran Church Friday afternoon about one hundred and fifty delegates in attendance. Whilst it is called the Young Woman's Christian Association there were many present who so far as years are concerned, could not be called young, but as some one said they were young in spirit, and hence the gray hair, whilst it did not detract from their usefullness added to the dignity of the assembly. The larger part of the convention was composed of handsome, cherry faced young ladies, who were banded together for a noble purpose, viz elevating womanhood. We can imagine of no work, more praise worthy or commendable than that in which they are engaged, and an attendance upon these meetings convinced every one of the sincerity of their motives.

Its objects are virtually the same as the Y. M. C. A. only for the other sex, the class perhaps who need it more than the young men, for it is certain that society will not rise higher than the young women who compose it. Let the women be pure and upright and they set the standard to which young men must come if they would be companions.

The time has come in the social sphere when the same standard of purity must be maintained for either sex, and these women are working to that end.

The evening session was held in the Normal Auditorium and was in the nature of a public meeting with short spirited addresses by leading representative women. Miss Nellie Allen, of New York, spoke eloquently of the "College Work." Miss Rachel Tolles, of Scranton, of the "City Work." Mrs. L. M. Gates, of Scranton, of the "State Work." Miss Grace L. Wing, of Chicago, of the "International." Miss R. F. Morse, who is traveling in the interests of the work in India and Australia, sent her paper on the "World's Work" which was read by Miss Mary S. Dunn, the State Secretary, from Scranton.

The address of the evening was by Miss Effie K. Price, of Chicago. Though the hour was late all remained to hear this remarkable address. For a half hour Miss Price held the large audience in wrapt attention as she spoke in glowing terms of the work done by "The Young Women's Association in Every Field."

The Saturday morning session of the convention convened in the Lutheran church at 8:30 o'clock with one hundred and forty-one delegates present. Every city Association was represented and with two exceptions every school and college Association in the State. Lock Haven Normal School and Carlisle Indian School sent delegates with a view to organizing Associations and becoming connected with the work.

The reports of the State Secretary, Miss Dunn, and Treasurer, Mrs. Carr, were very encouraging. Four new Associations, three college and one city, were organized during the year. The total receipts of the year were over sixteen hundred dollars. The balance in the treasury was one hundred and nine dollars. The city membership aggregates over three thousand, the college one thousand.

In the Bible hour Rev. J. T. Jeffers spoke of the study of the Bible. His talk was full of beautiful thought and inspirations for students and teachers of the Scripture. Miss Skeele, director of the physical culture department gave a very practical talk on the "Relation of Physical Culture to Y. W. C. A. Work." She also gave in the presence of the Convention a lesson illustrative of the work which can be done in Associations which are unable to purchase apparatus.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 p. m. with a Normal conference led by Miss Sara S. Kirk, of West Chester, who offered a very practical plan for systematic giving to the Association which was afterward adopted by the Association. In this conference reports of the work being done in the individual societies were heard from Clarion, West Chester, Mansfield, Edinboro, Millersville, East Stroudsburg and Bloomsburg.

Immediately after this a college conference presided over by Miss Allen, of New York, was held in the main audience room and a city conference at which Miss Hays, of Pittsburg, presided was held in another room of the church. At the college conference an illustrative cabinet meeting was held. Miss Price's talk on "How to Dignify the Association in College was a very earnest and helpful one.

Miss Wing spoke briefly of the benefits growing out of carefully kept records and how to strengthen intercollegiate relations.

Miss Carson came with "Sunshine," and certainly left much of it in the hearts of her listeners.

At the city conference a model board meeting was held. Miss Janet Adams, of Scranton, spoke of the physical department of city work, Miss Carlotta Codding, of Wilkes-Barre, of the social, Miss Emma Hays, of Pittsburg, of the educational, and Miss Henrietta Bicknell, Lancaster, of the religious. The many suggestions and inspirations given in these talks will certainly be felt in work of the coming year. This conference closed with a stirring talk on "Soul Winning" by Miss Carson, of New York.

In the short business meeting which followed the conference it was resolved to raise two thousand dollars for the work in the state.

In the evening a reception for the delegates was held in the Normal School Gymnasium, refreshments were served in the school parlors and the evening was very pleasantly spent.

On Sunday morning the gospel meeting held in the Normal Auditorium was addressed by Miss Tomkinson, of Pittsburg.

At 10:30 in the Lutheran church Miss Effie K. Price spoke on "The Perfect Woman in Christ." State Secretary, Miss Dunn, spoke in the M. E. church taking for her subject, "The Trinity."

At 2:30 Miss Grace L. Wing addressed the Y. M. C. A. in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. At threee o'clock a missionary meeting was held in the M. E. church. The student volunteer movement was explained by Misses Allen and Price.

At 4:00 a Gospel meeting for women at the Presbyterian church was led by Miss Carson; so great was the congregation that many were obliged to stand and others left because they found not even standing room.

Sunday evening Miss Dunn spoke in the Reformed church, Miss Price in the Presbyterian church and Miss Tolles in the Normal Auditorium.

At 8:30 all gathered in the Auditorium for the farewell session. Resolutions were offered thanking the people of Bloomsburg and the faculty and students of the Normal school for their hospitality also the visiting delegates for their work towards the success of their convention.

Short talks were given at the request of the president by Mrs ——of Wyoming Seminary, Mrs. Satchell of Lancaster, Miss Kirk West Chester, Miss Price, Miss Wing, Miss Allen, Miss Carson, Rev. B. C. Conner and Dr. Welsh. After the formation of the Association circle, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. B. C. Conner.

The people of this city have been greatly blessed by the work of these pure Christain women. God speed each delegate on her mission of love.

They go to their respective homes bearing the best wishes of the people of this place for their continued prosperity.

MUSIC

Hath charms, etc., sings the poet. Music is not only a pleasure but an education as well. Put one of our pianos or organs in the house and you'll be surprised what a refining influence it has. The cost is insignificant between now and the Holidays. We are offering great inducements in pianos, organs, and sewing machines:

Pianos from $250 and upwards.
Organs from $50 and upwards.
World renown White sewing machines from $35 and upwards.
Queen sewing machines we are offering at $25 dollars cash. Best sewing machine for the money in the market to-day.
Also guitars, banjos, violins, harmonicas, and everything in the music line. Best sewing machine needles, and oil for all sewing machines. Pianos and organs tuned and repaired. Also all makes of sewing machines repaired.
